UNIVERSITY NEWS

A. S. Gregory, who was graduated from the School of Journalism in 1920, is now a reporter on the Commercial-Tribune of Cincinnati.

The freshmen women of the University are planning to furnish one of the parlors in Welch Hall, the new co-operative house which is to be opened next term, and have assessed each member of the freshman class 50 cents to be used for this purpose. All girls who have not paid their assessments are asked to see Helen Eidschen, Jean Hamilton or Nellie Anderson at once.

The University girls' Glee Club is to be put on the same basis as the men's Glee Club, according to John Mueller, who is directing it this year. Membership in the club is to be limited to thirty, and as the club gets a firmer footing, the standard of requirements for membership will be raised. Members who are consistently irregular in attendance will be dropped.

The U. L. B. gave its semi-annual banquet at the Knights of Columbus Student Home Saturday night. Talks were made by Lawrence Alexander, who spoke on "The Future of the U. L. B." and Henry Christmas, who spoke on "Why is a U. L. B.?" The following officers were elected for the coming term: President, M. A. Woodbury; secretary, Otto Weber; treasurer, L. W. Alexander, and sergeant-at-arms, Theo. E. Hobbs.

Xmas Shoes

Mr. Man: What is the good of gifts—or giving, if the remembrance does not say "I want to please you?"

What better gift could any man think of for Friend Wife or Mother, or Sister at Christmas than a pretty pair of shoes or slippers?

Instead of the usual "what-do-you-want-for-Christmas," why not be original?—surprisingly discovering her preference and size, is a simple matter.
